British Music with an Indian Accent

It has been a while since Shri and DJ Badmarsh (formerly known as Badmarsh & Shri) have hooked up to unleash their lethal brand of collaboration on the unsuspecting public! On invitation of the British Council they come together for a special appearance at the conference “Fortress or Area of Freedom” (19 – 20 May 2009) in the Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung in Berlin along with a third collaborator - VJ Oli Sorrentino.

The evening will be a roller-coaster ride with Shri on tablas, bass, Indian flutes, vocals, percussion and effects, DJ Badmarsh on decks (Breakbeat, Drum & Bass, Dubstep) and Oli working up some intense visuals and moods onstage. A mad mix from the masters of the Asian music scene in the UK.
